Twenty Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

20 October 2024 — Year B

Dear Parishioners,

I begin my Message with a brief update on my health. The old saying, 'No news is good news!' would seem to be applicable since at the time that I am writing this Message on Wednesday, I have had no feedback from any medicos. I have had an ultrasound of my lungs to see whether I had a blood clot or not, and since that would be considered serious and would warrant immediate attention, I can now assume that that was not the case. I have also had an ultrasound of my heart (a transthoracic echocardiogram) and worn an ambulatory ECG for 24 hours, but since the analysis of that won't reach my cardiologist until tomorrow, Thursday, at the earliest, I can only patiently wait. So, the interim 9:00am weekday Mass arrangements (all at Corpus Christi, Nundah), will continue to apply. Thank you once again for your prayers that I might return quickly to good health.

I must apologise for an oversight in not announcing in last weekend's Newsletter Message a forced change to the venue for the Saturday afternoon 4:00pm Parish Confessions. They are normally conducted in our Banyo Church, but again, due to my prohibition from driving, I shall be celebrating the 4:00pm Saturday Confessions at a slightly later time of 4:30pm in the Corpus Christi Church, Nundah, too. The 4:30pm time affords those Parishioners who do come to Confession the option of staying on for the 6:00pm Vigil Mass. The 4:00pm time is a purely arbitrary time anyone because it had to take into consideration the travel time for the Priest to close-up the Banyo Church and then to travel back to Nundah in adequate time for the Vigil Mass. Again, I must say that it is only a temporary arrangement and I'm sorry for any inconvenience that this and the other forced changes to the weekday Masses may cause Parishioners.

It is my intention to maintain our Parish diary in all other respects, and that includes the Parish's preliminary meeting with all who may be seeking to become Catholics. As most Parishioners would be aware, the Parish has already conducted two RCIA programs in 2024, and because there was an influx of further enquiries from interested adults, we are proposing to run a third program, with this one concluding during the 2025 Easter Vigil service (19 April). So, I would remind all who would like to become a Catholic or those who have family or friends who they know might also like to become a Catholic, that this general enquiry meeting will be held in the Parish Centre Meeting Room, on Saturday, 26 October, commencing at 10:00am. Any fully initiated Catholics who might like to assist me as a Catechist or as a Sponsor should also attend this meeting. I would also ask that any prospective RCIA Candidate (being people who reside within the Parish's parochial boundaries) to contact the Parish Office and obtain and complete a RCIA Registration form and to either bring the completed form with them on the Saturday of the meeting or to return it to the Parish Office before the meeting. Thank you.

STEWARDSHIP

“For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

(MARK 10:45)

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God’s love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from “I want more” to “thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share”. This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more God-centered.

A VOCATION VIEW

Life’s rewards are tied up in the spirit of service. Just as the Son of Man came to give His life, so too are we called through our profession of faith to serve others. Lord, we pray, ‘Let your mercy be on us as we trust You to do your will.’

The Annual Appeal in support of the work of Catholic Missions is upon us again. At all Parish Sunday Masses, there will be a Second Collection for the Catholic Missions taken-up after the Prayer of the Faithful and before the Offertory Procession. The First Collection will be the usual collection for the support of the pastoral work of our Parish. Once that collection has been completed, the collectors will immediately turn around and take-up the Appeal Collection. Please remember not to place money intended for the Parish in the Second Collection and vice versa for the First Collection, Appeal money or Appeal Envelopes in the First Collection. Thank you. There will be a supply of Catholic Mission Appeal Envelopes available for those who would like to contribute using EFT, credit cards or cash, and seek to have their donation accredited as a tax deductible gift.

I have one last item to bring to your attention before I conclude this Message. The Month of November is but weeks away, and it is again time for those who may want to request November Masses to be offered for their relatives and friends to think of lodging their November Mass Intentions right now. It is much better to lodge your intention in advance of November or before mid-November at the very least, because I cannot guarantee that any Mass request received beyond the middle of November will be able to be celebrated in November. A supply of November Mass envelopes have been placed in both Parish churches for Parishioners to use.

May the Lord bless and protect you throughout the week ahead.

Parish Priest

ARE YOU ON READING ROSTER?

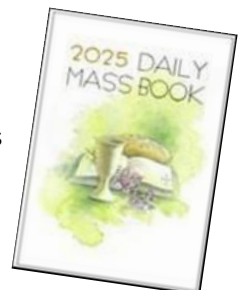

The new liturgical year begins on 1st December. Orders will be placed on Monday 21st October for Break Open the Word and the Daily Mass Book for 2025.

I had advertised an earlier date for orders to be finalised, however the various interruptions of the passed weeks have pushed the ordering of these annuals to the ‘Let’s look at this later tray on my desk!’

When supplies arrive, they will be delivered to your Mass Centre for your collection. We will be in touch with further information when we have a delivery date.

Thanks for your commitment to the ministry of the reading roster in our parish. This is a valuable tool for this ministry and it is strongly recommended for all involved in this ministry.

Thank you, Debra

ARCHDIOCESE OF BRISBANE & FLOCKNOTE

Have you signed up for Flocknote?

The month of September was to be the month in which all parishioners signed up to our new database.

We have had 37 families register to date. Thank you so much to these families for jumping on board! Many of you haven’t yet signed up.

We urge you to do this today. It will only take a moment of your time. I’m looking forward to seeing my inbox overflowing with notifications of your signups.

For more information about Flocknote, please watch this recording by Archbishop Mark Coleridge.

In the meantime, why not pre-order your copy of Hope Reigns, your Advent reflection resource available from advent-plus.com.au

HOPE REIGNS – ADVENT RESOURCE

The Archdiocese of Brisbane 2024 Advent Resource is now available for pre-order! Hope Reigns is a new 25-day reflection resource created for use during Advent by groups and individuals. Each daily reflection is written by guest writer Br. Damien Price cfc (Christian Brother of the Oceania Province) each day is accompanied by reflection questions and a concluding prayer.

With small groups in mind, we have purposefully reformatted the Sunday reflections to make this resource more open to use in an Advent small group setting. Each Sunday has a longer format including small group prompts, an opening prayer, the Gospel reading, a Sunday reflection, discussion questions and a concluding prayer. Pre-order now via adventplus.com.au

Commiserations for Brisbane

POPE Francis has appointed Brisbane auxiliary Bishop Tim Norton as the third Bishop of Broome today.

Brisbane Archbishop Mark Coleridge said the "only surprise of Pope Francis' appointment of Bishop Tim Norton SVD as the new Bishop of Broome was its timing".

"It came earlier than many, myself included, expected," he said. "But it is good news for Broome, even if it will be a loss for Brisbane where Bishop Tim will be much missed.

"The Diocese of Broome has been very troubled in recent times, and Bishop Tim has the gifts and experience to take the process of healing and renewal begun by the Apostolic Administrator, Bishop Michael Morrissey, into a new phase.

"Bishop Tim is a missionary by vocation, and he will be able to draw upon the resources of the Divine Word Missionaries who are already a presence in the diocese.

"I am deeply grateful for all that Bishop Tim has brought to the Archdiocese of Brisbane in his time among us; and I join many others in praying for him as he prepares for this new and challenging mission."

Joe Higgins for The Catholic Leader

This week, you're invited to partner with the Church in Mongolia to help deliver essential services to people who need it most. Lack of access and social stigma mean that some of the most vulnerable people are not getting the support they require.

The House of Mercy will provide a haven for many people, including those affected by homelessness and domestic violence. Without your partnership, people in need will go without the assistance they require.

During World Mission Sunday, we are called to "Invite others to the banquet", and we invite you to share the warmth of God's love with our brothers and sisters who need it most in Mongolia. You can support this work by using the appeal envelope, going online at catholicmission.org.au/mongolia, or scanning the QR code. Your gift will also assist many other Church programs around the world.
