Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

3 November 2024 — Year B

Dear Parishioners,

I have five items to draw your attention to today. The first is the publication of the Parish Financial Report for 2023.

I'll begin by noting that there has not been any Financial Reports published and distributed to Parishioners of this Parish that I know of. But, that is not how I operate as Parish Priest. In each of my previous Parishes, I have provided Parishioners with an annual summary of the Parish's financial position after I have received and tabled the Parish's Audited Report for the previous financial year. I believe that it is important to convey to all Parishioners, where the Parish stands from a financial perspective, and for you to see firsthand, how well the Parish Finance Council's (PFC) and my stewardship of your money is being managed. Ordinarily, I would be aiming to present this Report to you in the first quarter of the year, but the Archdiocese has appointed a new Auditor in 2024, and this resulted in the 2023 Financial Year Audit only being recently completed in July, 2024. We finished the 2023 with a small end-of-year net profit of $20,711. I invite you to peruse and retain the Report so that you might be able to compare the 2023 year with the 2024 year when it is published next year. Thank you for your ongoing financial support of our Parish.

The second item is to announce the recent resignations of Maree Ganley (Parish Pastoral Council) and Anthony (Tony) Gilmartin (Organist and Volunteer Cleaner of Corpus Christi Church). Both Maree and Tony have served the Parish with distinction for many years, decades in fact, but their health now precludes them from continuing in these ministries. I would therefore like to publicly acknowledge their dedicated service to our Parish and to thank them on your behalf for their services. I pray that they will continue to find fulfilment in their retirements.

I would also like to offer a timely reminder to those who receive the electronic version of the Parish Newsletter on a Friday (my third item); of course the information will be less relevant for those who read my Newsletter Message only when they attend their preferred Parish Sunday Mass. The reminder is about the Plenary Indulgence (PI) that Catholics can obtain for a Holy Soul in Purgatory which is possible on All Souls Day, November 2, only. I did brief all Mass attendees during last weekend's Sunday Masses about the Plenary Indulgence, but, since I truly believe that it is something that we should utilise annually when the opportunity presents itself, that I have chosen to reiterate the salient points again for your edification.

A PI obtained on November 2, when completed, has the immediate effect of the soul for whom the PI is being offered of being instantaneously being freed from their temporal punishment in Purgatory and taking up permanent residence with the Lord in His Heavenly home. Because the effects of the PI are so efficacious, the PI is only necessary to be sought once, ever, and that should be a comforting thought for all who strive to obtain a PI for a deceased relative or friend. The three conditions that must be fulfilled are: (1) receive sacramental confession on the day or immediately before November 2, (2) receive eucharistic communion on November 2, and (3) pray for the pope's intentions. This is in addition to one's visiting a church on November 2, and one's praying the Lord's Prayer and the Creed during their visitation. For those who receive and read this in a timely fashion, I would remind them that I shall be celebrating two All Souls Day Masses – 7:00am in the Corpus Christi Church, Nundah, and 8:30am in the Holy Trinity Church, Banyo; and I will be offering the Sacrament of Penance in the Holy Trinity Church on Saturday afternoon from 4:00pm to 5:00pm.

STEWARDSHIP

"And 'to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself' is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices."

(MARK 12:33)

Of all the gifts that God gives us, the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of our love for Him, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it's more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.

THE POPE'S PRAYER INTENTIONS FOR NOVEMBER

For Parents Who Have Lost a Child

"Let us pray that all parents mourning the death of a child find support in the community and receive heart's peace from the consoling Spirit."

A VOCATION VIEW

We pray for the souls gone before us, priests, religious and lay – those who have taken their vocation of Christian service seriously. May the Lord's merciful love purify them completely, that they may look upon the face of God and rejoice forever. A Vocation dwells within us, with the powerful possibility to transform our lives and make us saints.

The fourth item concerns the Parish's next RCIA Program. Last Saturday, the Parish met with five enquirers who are interested in preparing to join our ranks as Catholic Christians. That is a positive development indeed. The next RCIA Program with its first group meeting scheduled for Remembrance Day, November 11. Once again, I am seeking the assistance of Parishioners to participate in this third RCIA Program for 2024 as a Candidate's Sponsor or as a Catechist. If you can help in either of these ways, please contact me or the Parish Office this week. Thank you.

The fifth and final item is more of a reminder about what is happening in our nation and in the United States of America this week. On Tuesday, the race that stops the nation – The Melbourne Cup – will again be run. I wish all punters who lay a bet on the race the best of luck. Also, on Tuesday the Reserve Bank of Australia meet and announce its latest interest rate decision. The other matter is the Presidential Election being held in the US on Wednesday (our time), or Tuesday if you live in the US. I mention the latter because the election of their President has ramifications for the rest of the world – they will effect foreign relations, world economies, and defence alliances such as ANZUS, four eyes, AUKUS, et cetera. Even though we might not be involved directly in the Elections, Australia, like many other nations do have a vested interest in the outcome.

As we enter this month where we remember our deceased relatives and friends in a special and sacred way, I pray that the week ahead will be a spirit-filled one and may God bless yu all!

THE MONTH OF HOLY SOULS

During the month of November, it is the long tradition of the Church that we pray for our brothers and sisters in the faith who have died. In each church there will be a Book of Remembrance. If you wish, in it you may write the names of your loved ones, relatives or friends who have died. Every Mass in each of our parish churches will be offered during November in a general way for those whose names have been written this year in the Book of Remembrance.

You may wish to have a Mass offered individually for your family members or friends who have died. To do this you are invited to use the envelopes provided for November Masses. Please record the names on the outside of the envelope and inside place the Mass offering (usually $15).
